JUNE 10th Luncheon

Business First

Join Business First for a brief presentation that will teach you how to use Business First to grow your business and career.

We will provide you with time-saving strategies for getting what you need out of Business First before the issues pile up in your office. We will show you how to turn that stack of papers into a pile of opportunities.

Topics Covered:

- How to navigate the paper in just 30 minutes a week.
- How to recognize warm sales leads in news stories and features.
- How to use Business First to bolster your networking efforts and get connected with the decision-makers in the Louisville-area business community.
- Specific examples of how current companies and individuals use Business First and the Book of Lists.
- How business information can help you achieve your sales goals.
- How to read Business First more effectively and efficiently.

C.H.O.I.C.E. Inc.
20th Annual Conference Graduation

C.H.O.I.C.E. (Children Have Options In Choosing Experiences) Inc. held its 20th Annual Conference Graduation on May 22, 2009 at the Flaget Center, 1936 Lewiston Place, Louisville, Ky. This all day event is a celebration of the participants who have completed the 28 week prevention program and have been empowered to make more positive, healthy lifestyle choices.

C.H.O.I.C.E. is a comprehensive community-based prevention program, providing services to young people who reside in Metro Louisville and who are not yet chemically dependent.

Welcomes were extended to the C.H.O.I.C.E. group members, parents and community guest by Tim Barry, Executive Director of Louisville Metro Housing Authority; Maurice Risner, Executive Director JCPS, Student Relations/Safety; Charlie Baker, Co-Chairman of KY ASAP Region 6 –Local Board; Jennifer Clark, Grants & Contracts, Louisville Metro Dept. of Health and Wellness; Victoria Bemker of WHAS Television 11 and the President of C.H.O.I.C.E. Board of Directors, William Yesowitch.

The event was an all-time success with children from ages 9 to 19 gathering for workshops and a healthy luncheon provided by Masterson’s and entertainment provided by Kenneth Graham, YSC, Coordinator and the PeeWee Valley SDA Youth Group.

The co-sponsors of this year’s event were: B.F. South, Inc.; Buechel-Fern Creek Rotary Club; Buechel Rotary Charitable Foundation; E.T. Sharp; Michael Richardson, Edward Jones; Remmers Dental Group and St. Michael Antiochian Orthodox Church.

Thanks to all of our vendors for their donation of prizes for participants and parents. Community support such as yours, play a vital part in young people feeling positive about themselves and feeling a commitment to make more positive choices in their lives.
